MESSAGE NOTES

Pastor Bill Ehmann

Up to this time in John's Gospel, Jesus is consistent in saying that His time has not come. The scene changes in Chapter 12. It is time to move toward the completion of His journey to Planet Earth. Through His death, burial and resurrection, He will cancel the penalty of sin forever.

Jesus demonstrated a quiet and methodical approach to daily life. He never appeared to be in a hurry and He is always on time. Galatians 4:4 reminds us that Creator God does His work in His time and in His way.

Be encouraged today that our times are in God's hands. The song reminds us: "We may trust Him fully all for us to do – those who trust Him wholly find Him wholly true."
