MESSAGE NOTES

Pastor Bill Ehmann

We can benefit from the final thoughts of someone as they complete their career – especially if they are willing to share words of wisdom from their experience, as well as painful realities of the journey.

Pastor Timothy must have felt mixed emotions as he appreciated the challenge from his mentor, realized how much he would miss having Paul in his life, and anticipated his personal assignment. The message is directed to Timothy, but the application is for every follower of Jesus.

1. The Impact of Generational Godliness 1:3-5
2. The Formula for Imparting Influence 1:7
3. The Priority of Telling Jesus' Story 1:8-12
4. The Joy of Knowing God's Approval 2:14-15

5. The Reality of Counterfeit Christianity 3:1-13
6. The Confidence of Scriptural Truth 3:14-17
7. The Job Description of a Pastor 4:1-5

Ponder This:

While the professional role of a pastor is a necessary spiritual gift in the Body of Christ, every person at some point is a shepherd to someone.
