"WALKING IN TRUTH WITH JESUS" BOOK OF III JOHN

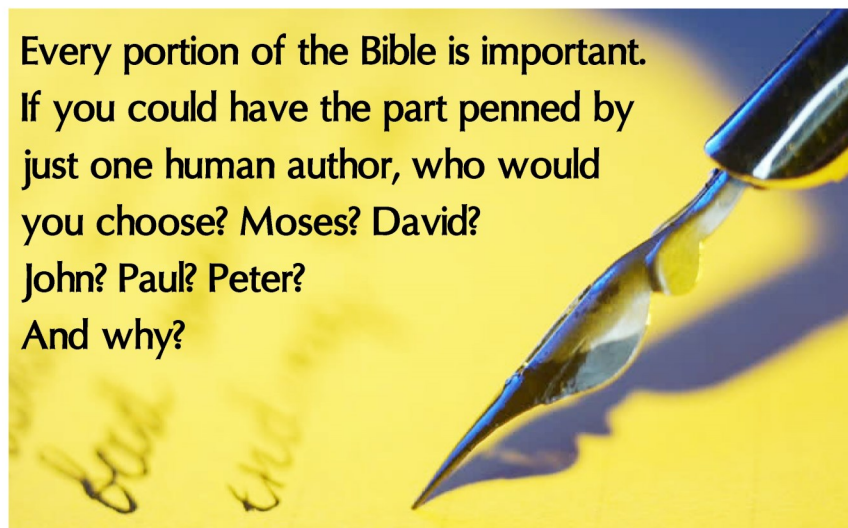

While Second John appears to be addressed to a lady – most likely a church family – Third John is directed to “my dear friend Gaius.” It is a man writing to a friend who is living the truth of the Gospel and balancing it with love. This short letter contains encouragement and counsel.

It is a timely reminder for followers of Jesus that the authority of God’s Truth must always establish the boundaries within which we live. When emphasized in the context of God’s Love, the beauty of Jesus is evident.

1. The joy of believers living in truth vs. 1-4
2. The bond of believers living in truth vs. 5-8
3. The danger of truth without love vs. 9-11

4. The lonely voice of truth during conflict v. 12

5. Using technology in communication vs. 13-14

Every portion of the Bible is important.
If you could have the part penned by just one human author, who would you choose? Moses? David?
John? Paul? Peter?
And why?
