"JESUS FOLLOWERS NEED EACH OTHER IN ORDER TO BE EFFECTIVE"

Philippians 2:19-30

Paul has appealed to the church in Philippi to live together in such a way that the Gospel will be proclaimed through their actions. In this passage, he turns from appeal to action. Paul, feeling the burden to minister to the church in Philippi, plans to commission two faithful servants to oversee this effort.

Having set forth Christ as the supreme example of humility, self-sacrifice, and obedience, Paul commissions Timothy and Epaphroditus as two human examples of living Christ-centered, Gospel-focused lives.
