"Prepared to Solve a Problem"

Daniel Chapter Two

The Epistle of James in the New Testament talks about the relationship of faith and actions. James 2:17 rather bluntly says that faith without the evidence of proper actions is dead. The power of the evidence of our faith is seen in the actions and attitude of our life experience.

Daniel and his friends were in a godless culture where their faith in Creator God could have impact. What better situation to demonstrate this than to handle an undeserved death sentence with grace, humility, honesty and trust?

Everyone has problems. Followers of Jesus can be problem solvers that Creator God will use to reveal Himself to people who need to know Him. We get to have the joy of being trusted with the process.
