"Prepared by the Right Mentor"

Daniel Chapter Three

Mentoring begins early in our life journey. That is why God gave children parents.

Mentoring is often peer influence. It is important to learn early in life how to choose friends wisely.

Standing alone is the ultimate test of our faith. Having friends stand with us strengthens our courage.

1. What the statue probably suggests. vs 1-7
2. The accusation against the three Jews. vs 8-12
3. The arrogance of the king. vs 13-15
4. The faith of three God-followers. vs 16-18
5. The reaction of the raging king. vs 19-23
6. Three men in the furnace – no, there are four! vs 24-27
7. The impact on the king. vs 28-30

Principles

1. Prepare ahead of the test how you will respond when it comes.
2. Avoid alternative options – stay with what you believe.
3. Think long-term – what do you want to look back on?
