SECOND PETER: RIGHTEOUS LIVING IN WICKED TIMES
“THE PRACTICE OF KNOWING CHRIST”
2 PETER 1:10-15

Peter has told his readers that they have received precious gifts from God that enable them to escape the corruption that is in this world. The gift of a divine nature enables Christ followers to be free from their sinful passions. Yet this divine nature must be nurtured by practicing and growing the same virtues that Christ practiced Himself. Without practice, spiritual decay is the inevitable result.

In this passage, the knowledge of Christ and the practice of Christ become one and the same. The practice of knowing Christ is Peter’s priority for the church and the church’s priority as its calling.
