

The Bragging Rights of the Believer
"Hope's Foundation"
 1 Corinthians 15
 Nathan Hager

Main Idea: The Gospel holds out the sure hope of bodily resurrection which should lead to Olympian-like endurance and service.

15:1-11 - The resurrection is an essential aspect of the Gospel message.

15:1-2 - Knowing the truths of the Gospel does not mean one believes in the Gospel

15:3-11 - Reminder: The Gospel is the story of Jesus' life, death, resurrection, and presence with His people.

15:12-34 - Denying the resurrection is the same as denying all of Christ's work.

15:35-57 - The resurrection body is mysterious yet we know it will be a physical reality that is better and different than our current bodies.

15:58 - This resurrection hope strengthens us in our 'foolish' service.
