"Unity in Love"
Tom Miles

Intro:

Unity in Love – a people, a family, created to be united in Love
The greatest commandment Matt 22:37-40
A New command or Old? John 13:34-35
Loving each other is how people will know…
Our goal in this series…get to know each other!

Message: John 13:3-17

Jesus demonstrates what love looks like in God's kingdom…
Mark 9:35
It is Personal
It is Sacrificial
It is Messy
It is foolish
What does it show the world?

Getting to know each other:
Share a time when you were served well and it really impacted you

UPCOMING EVENTS

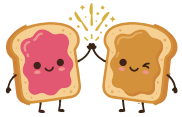

WOMEN'S CHRISTMAS CRAFT
Saturday, Nov 14 | 10am-12pm | Fellowship Hall
Paint an adorable wooden snowman! See the sample at the sign-up table. Cost is $15 to cover materials. No childcare for this event. Contact Kim Vestal.

Filled boxes due November 15
Fill a box with items for a boy or girl in need across the globe! These boxes are delivered with the gospel message and communicate God's love. Empty boxes are available in the Fellowship Hall, along with a suggested lists of items. Each box cost $10 to ship, so we are also collecting funds to pay postage (use the red cash donation box). Contact Kerry Woods.

FALL SERVICE PROJECT
Sat, Nov 21 | 8:30am-1:30pm |Various Homes
Leaves got you feeling overwhelmed? We can help! Men's Ministries is sponsoring a work day to help our congregation and their neighbors with fall clean-up. Sign up in the lobby — both those who need help and those willing to work! Contact Craig Crandall.

PEANUT BUTTER & JELLY DRIVE
Bring items by November 22
SPREAD THE LOVE! We are collecting creamy peanut butter and jelly specifically (other items needed are oatmeal bars, canned ravioli, canned Spaghetti-O's with meat, tuna and fruit cups). Please stick to this list, and PLEASE, NO EXPIRED FOOD. Bring donations to the Fellowship Hall by November 22.
